

Nobel Prize Winners

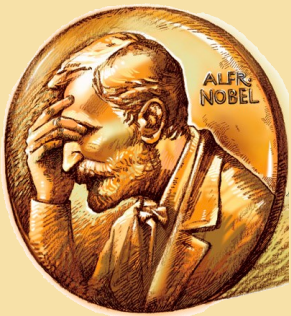

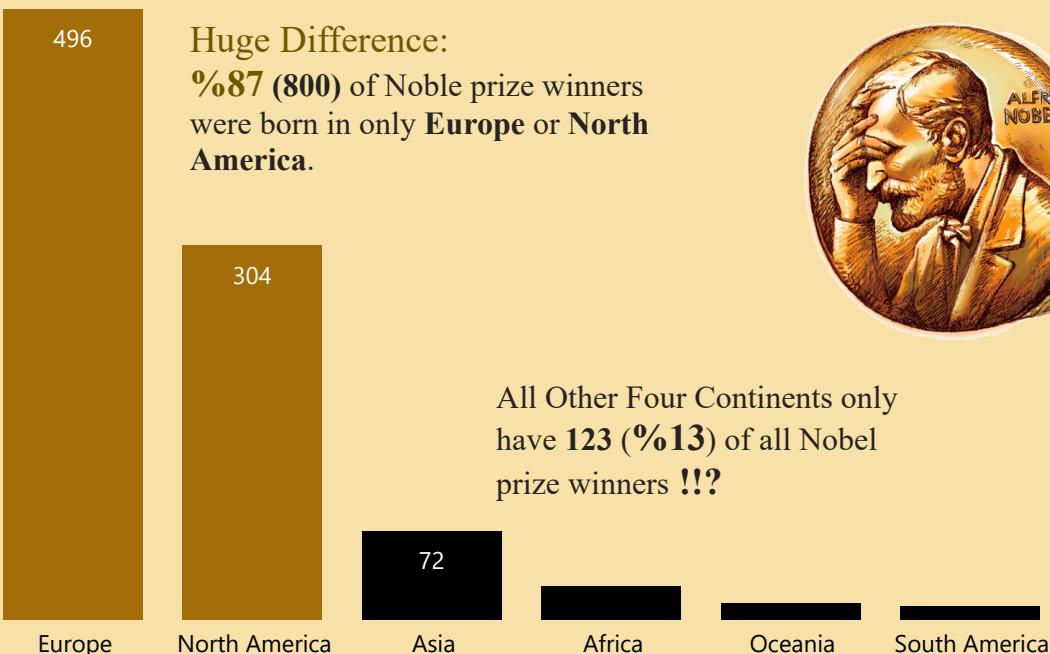

Differences Between Countries

The Nobel Prizes are six separate prizes that, according to Alfred Nobel's will of 1895, are awarded to "Those who, during the preceding year, have conferred the greatest benefit to Mankind".

Enormous Difference, But also an OPPORTUNITY:

We can encourage governments, especially governments of those four continents to focus on higher education programs. Including providing universities for low-income people, providing more scholarships and improving the quality of knowledge acquisition. But we should not expect short-term changes, as the average number of Nobel Prize winners is 60 years and is increasing.
